Vice Mayor, District 4

REVISED AGENDA MATERIAL for Supplemental Packet 2

Meeting Date: November 3, 2022

Item Number: 35

Item Description: Fair Workweek Ordinance; Adding Berkeley Municipal Code Chapter 13.102

Submitted by: Vice Mayor Harrison

RECOMMENDATION:

1. Adopt the revised Fair Workweek ordinance amended in consultation with the City Attorney's office to:
 - a. apply consistent employee thresholds of 10 workers employed within Berkeley and to clarify that the covered non-profits include only those in industries specified under Section 13.102.030 (a)(1), (2) and (3);
 - b. clarify definitions of domestic violence and sexual violence for purposes of work schedules not being posted publicly;
 - c. simplify 'Right to Rest' provisions;
 - d. simplify 'Enforcement by City' provisions;
 - e. clarify provisions relating to third-party enforcement of applicable state labor laws; and
 - f. fix formatting and numbering errors throughout.
2. Refer to the AAO #1 Budget Process $104,863 in General Funds with additional benefits to hire a Community Development Project Coordinator in the Health, Housing and Community Services (HHCS) Department to assist with enforcement of the Fair Workweek Ordinance, and existing/prospective labor laws and regulations, and $69,000 for a half-time payroll clerk for potential enrollment in benefits programs.

CURRENT SITUATION AND RATIONALE FOR RECOMMENDATION

The HHCS department is responsible for staffing and enforcing each of the City's labor ordinances and regulations, including the Minimum Wage, Paid Sick Leave, Berkeley Family Friendly and Environment Friendly, and Living Wage Ordinances. Currently, the Department has a single employee tasked with enforcing Berkeley's workforce standards. In consultation with HHCS leadership and a former employee who staffed the division, current labor enforcement staffing levels may not adequate for existing programs, let alone the adoption of possible new legislation such as the Fair Work Week Ordinance. It is in the public interest to expand staffing in this division to enhance implementation and enforcement of Berkeley's workforce standards. This budget referral was previously submitted by Vice Mayor Harrison as part of the FY 2022-23 budget process (see attached).

The Human Resources Department and Auditor's Office play a role in enrolling employees in retirement and health benefits, respectively. To the extent that any of the City's part time low-wage employees are qualified for additional hours within their existing function, and that additional hours of work are needed and budgeted and requests for those hours are made by existing employees, they may qualify for enrollment in retirement and health benefits once a given number of hours are reached. These are primarily management decisions about allocation of resources.

(c) A part-time employee may, but is not required to, accept the covered employer's offer of additional work under this section.

(1) A part-time employee shall have 24 hours to accept an offer of additional hours of work under this section, after which time the covered employer may hire new employees to work the additional hours.

(2) The 24 hour period referred to in this subsection begins either when the employee receives the written offer of additional hours, or when the covered employer posts the offer of additional hours as described in subsection (d) of this section, whichever is sooner. A part-time employee who wishes to accept the additional hours must do so in writing.

(d) When this section requires a covered employer to offer additional hours to existing part-time employees, the covered employer shall make the offer either in writing or by posting the offer in a conspicuous location in the workplace or electronically where notices to employees are customarily posted.

Notwithstanding any obligations under Section 13.102.060, an

Every covered employer shall also provide each employee at the time of hire with the covered employer's name, address, and telephone number in writing. Failure to post such notice shall render the covered employer subject to administrative citation, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The Department is authorized to prepare sample notices and covered employer use of such notices shall constitute compliance with this subsection.

13.102.110 Implementation.

(a) The Department shall be authorized to coordinate implementation and enforcement of this chapter and may promulgate appropriate guidelines or rules for such purposes. Any guidelines or rules promulgated by the City shall have the force and effect of law and may be relied on by covered employers, employees and other parties to determine their rights and responsibilities under this chapter. Any guidelines or rules may establish procedures for ensuring fair, efficient and cost-effective implementation of this chapter, including supplementary procedures for helping to inform employees of their rights under this chapter, for monitoring covered employer compliance with this chapter, and for providing administrative hearings to determine whether a covered employer has violated the requirements of this chapter.

(b) Reporting Violations. An aggrieved employee may report to the Department in writing any suspected violation of this chapter. The Department shall keep confidential, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws, the name and other identifying information of the employee reporting the violation; provided, however, that with the authorization of such employee, the Department may disclose their name and identifying information as necessary to enforce this chapter or other employee protection laws.

(c) Investigation. The Department may investigate any possible violations of this chapter by a covered employer. The Department shall have the authority to inspect workplaces, interview persons and subpoena records or other items relevant to the enforcement of this chapter.

(d) Informal Resolution. If the Department elects to investigate a complaint, the City shall make every effort to resolve complaints informally and in a timely manner. (a) Enforcement by City. ~~Where prompt compliance with the provisions of this chapter is not forthcoming, the~~The Department may take any appropriate enforcement action to ensure compliance, including but not limited to the following:

(1) A fine may be assessed for retaliation by a covered employer against an employee for exercising rights protected under this chapter. The fine shall be $1,000 for each employee retaliated against.

(2) A fine of $500 may be assessed for any of the following violations of this chapter:

(i) Failure to provide notice of employees' rights under this chapter.

(ii) Failure to timely provide an initial work schedule or to timely update work schedules following changes.

(iii) Failure to provide predictability pay for schedule changes with less than 24 hours advance notice.

(iv) Failure to offer work to existing employees before hiring new employees or temporary staff or to award work to a qualified employee.

(v) Failure to maintain payroll records for the minimum period of time as provided in this chapter.

(vi) Failure to allow the Department access to payroll records.

(3) A fine equal to the total amount of appropriate remedies, pursuant to subsection (c) of this section. Any and all money collected in this way that is the rightful property of an employee, such as back wages, interest, and civil penalty payments, shall be disbursed by the Department in a prompt manner.

(b) City Access. Each covered employer shall permit access to work sites and relevant records for authorized City representatives for the purpose of monitoring compliance with this chapter and investigating employee complaints of noncompliance, including production for inspection and copying of its employment records, but without allowing Social Security numbers to become a matter of public record.

(c) Any person aggrieved by a violation of this Chapter, any entity a member of which is aggrieved by a violation of this Chapter, or any other person or entity acting on behalf of the public as provided for under applicable state law, may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the Employer or other person violating this Chapter and, upon prevailing, shall be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and shall be entitled to such legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate to remedy the violation including, without limitation, the payment of any back wages unlawfully withheld, the payment of an additional sum as a civil penalty in the amount of $50 to each Employee or person whose rights under this Chapter were violated for each day that the violation occurred or continued with a maximum penalty of $1,000 per Employee per year, reinstatement in employment and/or injunctive relief. ~~Provided, however, that any person or entity enforcing this Chapter on behalf of the public as provided for under applicable state law shall, upon prevailing, be entitled only to equitable, injunctive or restitutionary relief to Employees, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.~~

This Section shall not be construed to limit an Employee's right to bring legal action for a violation of any other laws concerning wages, hours, or other standards or rights nor shall exhaustion of remedies under this Chapter be a prerequisite to the assertion of any right.

(d) The remedies for violation of this chapter include but are not limited to:

(1) Reinstatement, the payment of predictability pay unlawfully withheld, and the payment of an additional sum as a civil penalty in the amount of $50 to each employee whose rights under this chapter were violated for each day or portion thereof that the violation occurred or continued, and fines imposed pursuant to other provisions of this chapter or State law.

(2) Interest on all due and unpaid wages at the rate of interest specified in subdivision (b) of Section 3289 of the California Civil Code, which shall accrue from the date that the wages were due and payable as provided in Part 1 (commencing with Section 200) of Division 2 of the California Labor Code, to the date the wages are paid in full.

(3) Reimbursement of the City's administrative costs of enforcement and reasonable attorney's fees.

(4) If a repeated violation of this chapter has been finally determined in a period from July 1 to June 30 of the following year, the Department may require the employer to pay an additional sum as a civil penalty in the amount of $50 to the City for each employee or person whose rights under this chapter were violated for each day or portion thereof that the violation occurred or continued, and fines imposed pursuant to other provisions of this Code or State law.

(e) The remedies, penalties and procedures provided under this chapter are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other available remedies, penalties and procedures established by law which may be pursued to address violations of this chapter. Actions taken pursuant to this chapter shall not prejudice or adversely affect any other action, administrative or judicial, that may be brought to abate a violation or to seek compensation for damages suffered.

(f) No criminal penalties shall attach for any violation of this chapter, nor shall this chapter give rise to any cause of action for damages against the City.

13.102.130 Retaliation Prohibited.

An employer shall not discharge, reduce the compensation of, discriminate against, or take any adverse employment action against an employee, including discipline, suspension, transfer or assignment to a lesser position in terms of job classification, job security, or other condition of employment, reduction of hours or denial of additional hours, informing another employer that the person has engaged in activities protected by this chapter, or reporting or threatening to report the actual or suspected citizenship or immigration status of an employee, former employee or family member of an employee to a Federal, State or local agency, for making a complaint to the Department, participating in any of the Department's proceedings, using any civil remedies to enforce their rights, or otherwise asserting their rights under this chapter. Within 120 days of an employer being notified of such activity, it shall be unlawful for the employer to discharge any employee who engaged in such activity unless the employer has clear and convincing evidence of just cause for such discharge.

13.102.140 Retention of Records.

Each employer shall maintain for at least three years for each employee a record of their name, hours worked, pay rate, initial posted schedule and all subsequent changes to that schedule, consent to work hours where such consent is required by this chapter, and documentation of the time and method of offering additional hours of work to existing staff. Each employer shall provide each employee a copy of the records relating to such employee upon the employee's reasonable request.

13.102.150 City Access.

Each employer shall permit access to work sites and relevant records for authorized Department representatives for the purpose of monitoring compliance with this chapter and investigating employee complaints of noncompliance, including production for inspection and copying of its employment records, but without allowing Social Security numbers to become a matter of public record.

13.102.160 No Preemption of Higher Standards.

The purpose of this chapter is to ensure minimum labor standards. This chapter does not preempt or prevent the establishment of superior employment standards (including higher wages) or the expansion of coverage by ordinance, resolution, contract, or any other action of the City. This chapter shall not be construed to limit a discharged employee's right to bring a common law cause of action for wrongful termination.

13.102.170 Severability.

If any part or provision of this Chapter, or the application of this Chapter to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of this Chapter, including the application of such part or provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected by such a holding and shall continue in full force and effect. To this end, the provisions of this Chapter are severable.

Section 2. Copies of this Ordinance shall be posted for two days prior to adoption in the display case located near the walkway in front of the Maudelle Shirek Building, 2134 Martin Luther King Jr. Way. Within 15 days of adoption, copies of this Ordinance shall be filed at each branch of the Berkeley Public Library and the title shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation.

CONSENT CALENDAR

To: Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council
From: Vice Mayor Harrison
Subject: Budget Referral: Fund Additional HHCS Community Development Project Coordinator Position to Assist with Workforce Standards and Enforcement

RECOMMENDATION

Refer to the FY 23 and FY 24 Annual Budget Process approximately $104,863 in General Funds with additional benefits to hire another Community Development Project Coordinator in the Health, Housing and Community Services (HHCS) Department to assist with enforcement of existing and prospective labor laws and regulations.

CURRENT SITUATION AND RATIONALE FOR RECOMMENDATION

The HHCS department is responsible for staffing and enforcing each of the City's labor ordinances and regulations, including the Minimum Wage, Paid Sick Leave, Berkeley Family Friendly and Environment Friendly, and Living Wage Ordinances. Currently, the Department has a single employee tasked with enforcing Berkeley's workforce standards. In consultation with HHCS leadership and a former employee who staffed the division, current labor enforcement staffing levels may not adequate for existing programs, let alone the adoption of possible new legislation such as the Fair Work Week Ordinance. It is in the public interest to expand staffing in this division to enhance implementation and enforcement of Berkeley's workforce standards.

BACKGROUND:

The City of Berkeley currently enforces four workforce standards ordinances with the following provisions:

Minimum Wage

Employers must pay all staff who work in Berkeley at least two hours per week the minimum wage standard set by the City. The minimum wage standard in Berkeley is listed below:

The minimum wage standard applies to all employees who work at least two hours in the geographical limits of Berkeley, regardless of where the employer is located or where the employee lives. The standard applies to both for-profit and non-profit employers. Employees' tips do not count towards covering the minimum wage payment.

Paid Sick Leave

Employers must give their staff one hour of paid sick leave for every 30 hours worked.

Small business employers (with fewer than 25 employees) may cap an employee's accrued paid sick leave at 48 hours and may cap the use of paid sick leave to 48 hours per year.

Employers with 25 or more employees may cap an employee's accrual of paid sick leave at 72 hours, but may not cap how much paid sick leave an employee uses in a calendar year.

Berkeley Family Friendly and Environment Friendly Ordinance

Under this ordinance, an employee has the right to request a flexible or predictable work schedule. The employer does not have to grant the request, but does have to respond in writing within 21 days. If denying the request, the written response must include a business reason for denial.

The ordinance applies to employers with ten or more employees. Employees must have worked at least three months and must work at least eight hours per week on a regular basis to be covered by the ordinance.

An employer may revoke or modify a flexible or predictable working schedule for business reasons, with reasonable notice to the employee. Within 21 days, the employer must provide a schedule and must provide in writing to the employee a business reason for the change.

Living Wage Ordinance

Vendors paid more than $25,000 per year by the City of Berkeley must comply with the Living Wage Ordinance. To comply, vendors must pay a living wage (set by the City), provide health benefits or cash in lieu, and provide paid time off.

HHCS is responsible for implementing and enforcing such ordinances, including collecting complaints and helping to adjudicate alleged violations. Complaints are currently collected via email, in person or by mail. Complaints may be submitted by employees or any other person. In addition, HHCS is responsible for enforcing against employers who retaliate against any employee who asserts their right under the ordinances. Such responsibilities are vast and require additional staffing.

In addition, Council is actively considering the Fair Work Week Ordinance, which could require HHCS to adopt significant additional implementation and enforcement responsibilities.
