September 15, 2021

To: Mark Numainville and IRC Commissioners
From: Slogan Subcommittee Commissioners Lupe Gallegos-Diaz; Jesse Sussell; Delores Cooper
RE: Suggestions for official IRC slogan

The Slogan Subcommittee met on September 14. We discussed the slogan already submitted by Commissioner Choy and decided to leave his slogan as submitted. We brainstormed and came up with six additional suggestions which we would like to include with Choy's suggestion and submit all to the body for ranking, discussion, edits, and a final vote. If more suggestions are submitted by other Commissioners by the September 22 meeting, they may be added to the list.

A suggestion is made to have the commissioners vote to prioritize the list by ranking the list in order of preference, coming up with three top preferences. Those three preferences will then be discussed/edited if needed, after which we will have a final vote.

1. People Power to make a fair City Council district map by April 1, 2022.
2. Mapping our communities.
3. Mapping our communities with the people's voice.
4. Mapping our communities: redistricting by the people.
5. The people's voice: mapping our communities.
6. The people of Berkeley decide.
7. Berkeley Redistricting: decided by the people.

To: Independent Redistricting Commission
From: Mark Numainville, Commission Secretary
Subject: Revisions to Community of Interest Form

At the September 8, 2021 meeting, the Commission discussed potential modifications to the Community of Interest Form. The proposed changes included the following:

- More context for the link between COI and Redistricting
- Highlighting the Online Form
- Information about general city services
- Highlighting the most important aspects of the form for users

While revising the form staff incorporated the changes while still ensuring that the form would be comparable to the forms already submitted and not confuse the review and analysis of all COI forms.

An clean form and track changes form are included below.

Tell us about your community!

Help shape the future of Berkeley’s Council districts

Every ten years after the Census, the City Council district boundaries are redrawn to ensure the districts are balanced for changes in population.

Complete this form to tell the Independent Redistricting Commission about your community of interest so it can be considered in the redistricting process.

What is a “community of interest”?

A community of interest is a group of people in the same geographic area who share common social and economic interests.

Are there things that make your community unique when compared to surrounding areas? What characteristics do you share with your neighbors? How would you describe the area to a friend?

For example, some characteristics a community can share are:

- Identity
- Business districts
- Education
- Ancestry
- Shared transportation
- Cultural centers
- History
- Economic interests
- Language
- Neighborhoods

Redistricting laws also prohibit a few things from being included when drawing district boundaries – such as political parties and candidates, or where current councilmembers live.

Use our “Community of Interest Form” on the next page to describe your community. You can add more pages if needed.

Independent Redistricting Commission

Date: September 22, 2021

To: Independent Redistricting Commission

From: Mark Numainville, City Clerk

Subject: Selection of One At-Large Alternate Independent Redistricting Commission Commissioner

RECOMMENDATION

Review the information regarding ranking of applicants and nomination of candidates for one At-Large alternate commissioner, and appoint the fifth At-Large alternate for the Independent Redistricting Commission pursuant to Charter Section 9.5 and Berkeley Municipal Code Chapter 2.10.

CURRENT SITUATION

On August 30, 2021, At-Large appointee Simelia Rogers resigned from the commission. The first At-Large Alternate, Cindy Rosenthal declined the permanent appointment. The vacant seat was filled by the second At-Large Alternate, Lupe Gallegos-Diaz. The commission must now select one At-Large alternate commissioner from the remaining pool of applicants to replace Ms. Gallegos-Diaz.

Staff recommends that the newly appointed At-Large Alternate serve as the 5th Alternate rather than conducting a new random draw for the order of service.

BACKGROUND

The Independent Redistricting Commission met January 20, 2021 to begin the at-large selection process. Five At-Large commissioners were selected to increase diversity and representation on the commission. The Commission then selected five At-Large Alternates and ranked the order in which they would serve using a random draw method.

The tables below show the applicants previously under consideration for At-Large positions. The Commission may use this information for filling the open Alternate seat or may select any eligible applicant in the pool.

Table 1 shows the ranking scores for the non-white, non-male applicants previously submitted to the commission. They grayed out applicants are not eligible for appointment as an At-Large alternate for the reasons noted in the table.

Table 1. Rankings of non-white, non-male applicants.

Applicant	Score	Ranking
Adena Mieko Ishii*	26	1
Brenda Joyce Clark*	28	2

Amitabho Chattopadhyay	51	8
Rana Cho*	51	8
*Withdrawn from consideration.
Appointed as At-Large member
Appointed as At-Large Alternate

Additionally, during the ranking process, commissioners could provide an unlimited number of write-in nominations for appointment from the full pool of eligible applicants. Write-in names are listed in Table 2 below, with the total number of times they were nominated.

Table 2. Write-in applicants.

Demographics of Appointed Members

The at-large appointments made on February 10 made significant progress in better achieving community representation. Demographic data for current commissioners is listed in Table 3 below. This information may be referenced to identify additional areas of representation that may be provided by the single At-Large alternate appointment.
